In my heart, East Hampton is still a small town with small town values. We are a town where volunteer ambulance and firefighters get up in the middle of the night to help those in distress. Food pantries, religious, and civic groups help people in need. If a neighbor is suffering through a difficult time and faces one of life's tragedies the people of East Hampton are there to help. These small town values make East Hampton a special place. East Hampton needs a Supervisor who understands the town and shares these values.

I believe I can lead the town in sustaining these unique qualities while meeting the economic, social, and environmental challenges of the 21st century.

I'm a consensus builder. I'll provide even-handed leadership on the Town Board and treat everyone with dignity and respect.
